

In "The Gift of the Magi," Della and Jim both make a big sacrifice to show love for each other. They give up something very valuable to them—Della's hair and Jim's watch—to buy a meaningful gift. Think about a time when you had to make a difficult choice for someone else. What did you sacrifice, and how did it make you feel?

Write about a time when you showed love or care for someone, even if it wasn't easy. What did you learn from that experience?
