

FCI GCI NCCIW RCI

Student Name: _____

Subject/Topic: English/ Language Arts/ Language

Standard: L.4.1.f. Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.

Objective:

- Identifying complete sentence, fragment, run-on
- Correct editing of a fragment/run-on to complete sentence
- Correct sentence combining

Part 1: Fill in the blank with the letter for the correct answer:

_____ 1. Which of the following is a complete sentence?

- A. Protecting natural spaces is important to preserve wildlife, it also helps reduce pollution.
- B. Protecting natural spaces is important, it helps preserve wildlife and reduce pollution.
- C. Protecting natural spaces is important because it helps preserve wildlife and reduce pollution.
- D. Protecting natural spaces is important, and it helps preserve wildlife.

_____ 2. Which of the following is written correctly?

- A. We must conserve natural spaces they are crucial for the health of our planet.
- B. We must conserve natural spaces, they are crucial for the health of our planet.
- C. We must conserve natural spaces because they are crucial for the health of our planet.
- D. We must conserve natural spaces, and they are crucial for the health of our planet.

_____ 3. Which of the following is a run-on sentence?

- A. Natural spaces help protect endangered species, and they also provide a home for many plants.
- B. Natural spaces are disappearing, many species are becoming extinct as a result.
- C. Natural spaces like forests and parks provide oxygen for the planet.
- D. National parks help conserve biodiversity; they also support the economy through tourism.

_____ 4. Which of the following options correctly identifies and edits the sentence fragment or run-on sentence in the following passage?

Passage:

"The forest is home to many animals. The trees provide shelter. The forest is under threat from logging, the animals are losing their homes."

- A. The sentence "The forest is under threat from logging, the animals are losing their homes" is a run-on sentence. It can be corrected to: "The forest is under threat from logging because the animals are losing their homes."
- B. The sentence "The forest is under threat from logging" is a fragment. It can be corrected to: "The forest is under threat from logging, and it is important to protect it."

C. The sentence "The forest is home to many animals" is a fragment. It can be corrected to: "The forest is home to many animals, and they depend on the trees for survival."

D. The passage contains no errors.

Part 2: Identify the Sentence as Correct (A.) or Fragment (B.)

_____ 5. Conservation of natural spaces is vital for future generations.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 6. While many species rely on specific habitats.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 7. We must protect endangered areas for their ecological importance.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 8. If we don't conserve wetlands, they may disappear.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 9. After the forest was cleared for construction.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 10. These parks are safe havens for wildlife.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

_____ 11. Even though national parks are protected areas.

A. Correct

B. Fragment

Page 3 of 3

_____ 12. Choose the option that correctly combines the two sentences below.

The ocean is full of life. Many marine species rely on coral reefs.

A. The ocean is full of life, many marine species rely on coral reefs.

B. The ocean is full of life, and many marine species rely on coral reefs.

C. The ocean is full of life because many marine species rely on coral reefs.

D. The ocean is full of life, so many marine species rely on coral reefs.

_____ 13. Directions: Recognize the combined sentence:

A. We must conserve forests. Trees absorb carbon dioxide.

B. We must conserve forests because trees absorb carbon dioxide.

- C. We must conserve forests but trees absorb carbon dioxide.
- D. Both B and C

_____14. Choose the appropriate punctuation to correct the underlined portion of the following run-on sentence.

Forest preservation is essential to maintain biodiversity it also helps regulate the climate.

- A. biodiversity—and it also helps regulate the climate—
- B. biodiversity; it also helps regulate the climate.
- C. biodiversity, and it also helps regulate the climate.
- D. biodiversity and it also helps regulate the climate.

_____15. Combine the following sentences using an appropriate transition word or phrase:

1. I wanted to preserve the wetland.
2. It was being drained for development.

Which of the following options correctly combines the sentences?

- A. I wanted to preserve the wetland, however, it was being drained for development.
- B. I wanted to preserve the wetland, and it was being drained for development.
- C. I wanted to preserve the wetland; therefore, it was being drained for development.
- D. I wanted to preserve the wetland, so it was being drained for development.

_____16. Combine the following sentences using an appropriate conjunction and punctuation:

1. The river was becoming polluted.
2. The local community organized a cleanup event.

Which of the following options correctly combines the sentences?

- A. The river was becoming polluted, and the local community organized a cleanup event.
- B. The river was becoming polluted but the local community organized a cleanup event.
- C. The river was becoming polluted, so the local community organized a cleanup event.
- D. The river was becoming polluted; the local community organized a cleanup event.